INTRODUCTION: HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

“Use this star guide to help you recognise, meet and keep your true soulmate partner and soul friends (astrolovemates) to live your dream destiny together.”

Written with cosmic energy, ‘Soulmates Love Stars’ is a trilogy of 12 zodiac novelettes, analogies that give you practical guidance and further insight into yourself and your loved ones. Helping you to ‘find your true self’ personality and soulmates.

Each zodiac sign is related to recognising your self characteristics, love, money, work, health, lucky associations and sexy soul-mating. All aim to help you make the most of your personality, love life and potential soulmates. You can also use this star guide to understand other zodiac signs around you, to attract more harmony and romantic love into your life by understanding others needs and motivations. To improve your life, you can reflect, meditate or look at the lifestyle, attitudes, behaviours of that sign and see whether these can make a difference to enhance your life with love, health and wealth in abundance when looking for direction or interacting with others.

Soulmates Love Stars or ‘Astrolovemates’ a new word concept first created by Fiona Stewart at the start of the millenium, means ‘soulmates’ ‘love’ under the ‘stars (astro)’, with advice on helper ‘soulmates’ you meet on your journey to fulfil your life path destiny. Astrolovemates puts you back in touch with your own intuition via cosmic influences of the zodiac constellations, stars above. Your zodiac (sun) sign is the strongest influence on your personal development, however a secondary influence is the zodiac sign associated with your moon placement at birth, for further insight into emotions, love and partnership lifestyle traits. Insights for your soul’s fulfilment or healing any imbalance of mind, body and soul towards unison.

This star guide reveals an intuition known to the ancients from millenniums past, that is being rediscovered today. A potential gateway to the future. Astrolovemates offers you a thought-provoking personal love life guide, relating your zodiac personality, star sign to your true self to help you find your own brightly shining star within. ❧ 1. AQUARIUS – YOUR SELF ❧

Independent, innovative and original are you. You bring inspiration, change with humanitarianism into a world in need of your changing, refreshing ideas. Your mind is so finely tuned that you are streets ahead of the rest. Usually they catch up with you decades later. Your viewpoint is independent, though sometimes hard to put into practice. Still this does not deter your youthful optimism.

Your love of independence cannot be underestimated as this makes you one of the most self sufficient of the zodiac signs. You are helpful, friendly, caring, often helping others in the community or charities, yet love to have your own space and peace of mind. Detachment is a finely honed gift of yours, so though you love to care, you can detach as fast as you joined.

For you a perfect loving partner means partnership in a business or family life purpose sense. Aquarius more than most signs will happily choose to live alone, providing they have stimulating hobbies, work or career to keep that busy mind active. Even in a relationship unless working together, following a dual path or debating issues, you probably lead an independent lifestyle. You hate inhibitions and love freedom to be, do and act as you see best, which may not be the family or society norm. Unless you settle into a long-term relationship reasonably early in life or marry relatively young, you will find it very hard to trade your amazing lifestyle for a live-in togetherness or marriage.

Even when together you like to have the option to flirt and to be friendly with the opposite sex - just broadening your horizons. Though some of you can be the most loyal hi-fidelity lovers, others through presentation of many opportunities succumb to temptation. You love to test out new boundaries, unknown theories, innovative projects, people you have only just met and flirtatious opportunistic situations. Most of the time you are just playing, wondering how the other person ticks, or inquisitively scientifically probing to get to the bottom of a matter. Most of the time this is harmless fun, other times it leads you into deep waters.

✠ 10. PISCES - LOVE ✠

You are a torrent and deep well of empathetic emotions. Love flows always from your heart. All kinds of love are yours, whether universal soul love, romantic love, friendship love or love for a pet. You feel within so strongly or sense another's joy or angst that it's almost like your own sometimes. It takes maturity to detach, to love when it matters and to free life up for living. Equally you can project with great drama, passion and emotion your feelings. Tales of deepest woes, angst brings tears of emotion to another's eyes. Love is the essence of you.

Pisces, you are a soul dreamer. So many dreams colour your imagination. Your life path, it is like taking part in a Lord of the Rings epic journey. As you alternately travel through virtual reality and real world time. Holidays enjoyed and magical moments will be when by the eternal sea.

Your soul is beautiful like a rainbow breaking through the clouds. Your outer persona is like a reflective pool with hidden depths. You are difficult to fathom out. The mystical dreamer that you are can help others too.

It takes time for others to get close to you, however when another wins your heart, you are loyal for eternity. Yet, you always have a secret depth that no one ever touches.

Your gift of being a Piscean is that of lighting up other people's lives. The inner world you escape within is too amazing to describe to others. Your imagination travels across universes, where you meet your fantasy lover to make eternal love under the stars. You light up others lives with your creativity, peaceful essence, bring dreams to others who often have few or lack them. Your eyes follow golden lights dancing of faeries in the garden as you traverse a world where love rules eternal.

So what has this got to do with real love you ask? Everything, because this is the world you live in on a daily basis. Ironically your ideal playmates and partners do too or rather have interesting worlds of their own to amuse you with. You see that male over there, well he is really a prince in shining armour, that female she is a princess, a lady or damsel that needs rescuing.

♈ ARIES – SEXY SOULMATING ♈

Aries, you could be Eros/Cupid or Venus/Diana, flying like an arrow into love. Romantic passionate and ardent, you make finding your mate a priority in life. Until you find the perfect partner, you keep your eyes open scouring the horizons at social or work occasions for the perfect partner. You have so much to do in life and so much loving to give that you need a partner in your life to share your passions.

Though strong minded and independent in spirit, you know that perfection is in a couple and two together in partnership, achieve far more than one alone.

You are a romantic, dreamer and quite traditional underneath. Courtship and life revolves around your partner's life, place, family and friends. That is as long as it meets your life plan; otherwise you will get your partner to revolve around you and especially your own business enterprise if you have one. The male leads and the female follows or appears to at least while dancing to the tune of love. As if the power balance has not changed before the marriage ceremony, afterwards the Aries male or female definitely leads after the marriage ceremony. Aries, you will tend to lead the partnership. Even if not the major earner, you will set the pace. This is your life plan, there is so much to be done and you choose your partner as you know they will in the long term fulfil your dreams.

You love the physical, sensual side of love and it takes very little to turn your sexual energies on when with the right partner. Then you are ever ready and often fantasising about scenarios to express your sexuality as so passionate. You like to make love more than once a night and more than the national average.

Your lovemaking can take place in a variety of locations, indoors, outdoors or wherever the mood takes you. A little risqué adventure, on the boardroom table after work is a temptation once in your life. You like to play dominance or submissive roles, testing your own power sexually or seeing if your partner is strong enough to make you submit. You feel at one with your sexuality and it's a great way to make you smile and release your tensions.

❖ 27. TAURUS - MONEY ❖

In life, you rarely encounter a broke or poverty stricken Taurean. Though some may moan about lack of money or poverty, you Taureans are then probably down to your last few thousand. You often have secure hidden resources or somewhere cosy to retreat to if desperate. Taurus you make sound financial plans, investments, plans for contingencies. Taurus, you value your security and respect that which money can bring in life.

A risk is a well planned strategy, carefully thought through and calculated in the long run to be the best here and now opportunity. The more return on investment with security the better. Insecurity you detest as it keeps you awake with worry at night.

Though you value money and possessions, you have the endearing trait of putting your loved one's needs first before your own needs and career. Being practical, you may be giving, yet do not extend altruism too far, focussing on priorities, realising others have their loved ones too to look after them.

You can be kind and generous with your money, supporting your nearest and dearest that you love, as you believe charity starts at home. Causes that you support are often sparked by personal experience either first hand or second hand by your closest friends and extended family. You like to have experience in an area or know it is a worthwhile cause supported by others. You think deeply, before donating money that is hard earned.

Taurus, as you mature, plan for the future, some may even map out a vision and savings plan to retirement. You have a powerful vision about your life plan for property, stocks and shares, savings plans, insurance and bonds. You love to feel secure, nurturing and growing assets, protecting loved ones. Savings accounts come second nature to you, as you budget carefully for new purchases, household goods or exotic travel plans. Taurus loves at least one great holiday per year. A small acorn growing into a majestic oak could be symbolic of a Taurean lifetime monetary policy. Practical, earthy and well grounded, accumulating and handling money comes naturally.

GUIDANCE - ROMANTIC SOUL MATES

“Love, hate, ignore or treat them with indifference,
Live together in blissful union or apart in hatred,
In separation be aware of a hidden shared life purpose,
Your soulmate’s presence will be felt in your waking,
Your restlessness subconscious, nights of angst,
Any which way your destiny falls your paths will cross,
Even alone, your dreams are of soulmate contracts.”

FIONA D’ARCY STEWART

Others have found the following guidance given on soulmates inspiring, which is partly my own thoughts and partly extrapolated from late night discussions on the higher meaning of soulmate philosophy, love and life over many years of intriguing debates.

ROMANCE YOUR LOVE STARS - SOULMATES

Defining Soulmates

There are many definitions of soulmates, varying from the ultimate love experience seeking of the holy grail to helper soulmates that work alongside us during this lifetime on planet earth.

Types of Soulmates

These can be divided into three levels in the hierarchy i) twin flames soulmates ii) higher twin soulmates iii) lower sister-brother soulmates and finally helper soulmate associate friends/family.

All of which are magical, a little like a pyramid effect, twin flames are elusive at the top, then there is a number of higher twin potential soulmates, then lots of sister-brother soulmates, then masses of ordinary souls. Most are at the ‘norm’ of soul evolution.

It is commonly recognised that there are degrees of soulmate liaisons, from the highest plane on nirvana which is often transient, brief fleeting, cosmic, making the universe move, and very difficult to love for any duration such soulmates, let alone live with, compared to a more enduring easier loving lower soulmate.

Occasionally, it is possible to endure a relationship with the highest of high soulmates who are preoccupied with their soul mission. More often successful longer duration of soulmates occurs lower down the hierarchy. Then of course there is just non-soulmates, normal romantic unions or merely functional couplings to satisfy a basic urge, that come or go in a lifetime. Soulmates often face trials with great challenges to equal its bliss in joyful union, calm at times and others irritating or inflammatory, stormy.

Soulmates can be viewed like a hierarchy and it is possible to meet more than one type of soulmate in your lifetime, if you should be so lucky. Though sometimes a lack of passion from sexual soulmate encounters or soulmate experience is beneficial as ignorance is bliss, conducive to a peaceful life even. As passionate sexual soul-mating or a close encounter of such nature once felt, even if briefly creates a restless questing rarely satisfied again, then other sexual romantic relationships afterwards pale into insignificance as the soul hungers after that magical bliss of feeling at one and at home both within one’s own soul and with another.
