INTRODUCTION: HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

“Use this star guide to help you recognise, meet and keep your true soulmate partner and soul friends (astrolovesmates) to live your dream destiny together.”

Written with cosmic energy, ‘Soulmates Love Stars’ is a trilogy of 12 zodiac novelettes, analogies that give you practical guidance and further insight into yourself and your loved ones. Helping you to ‘find your true self’ personality and soulmates.

Each zodiac sign is related to recognising your self characteristics, love, money, work, health, lucky associations and sexy soul-mating. All aim to help you make the most of your personality, love life and potential soulmates. You can also use this star guide to understand other zodiac signs around you, to attract more harmony and romantic love into your life by understanding others needs and motivations. To improve your life, you can reflect, meditate or look at the lifestyle, attitudes, behaviours of that sign and see whether these can make a difference to enhance your life with love, health and wealth in abundance when looking for direction or interacting with others.

Soulmates Love Stars or ‘Astrolovesmates’ a new word concept first created by Fiona Stewart at the start of the millenium, means ‘soulmates’ ‘love’ under the ‘stars (astro)’, with advice on helper ‘soulmates’ you meet on your journey to fulfil your life path destiny. Astrolovesmates puts you back in touch with your own intuition via cosmic influences of the zodiac constellations, stars above. Your zodiac (sun) sign is the strongest influence on your personal development, however a secondary influence is the zodiac sign associated with your moon placement at birth, for further insight into emotions, love and partnership lifestyle traits. Insights for your soul’s fulfilment or healing any imbalance of mind, body and soul towards unison.

This star guide reveals an intuition known to the ancients from millenniums past, that is being rediscovered today. A potential gateway to the future. Astrolovesmates offers you a thought-provoking personal love life guide, relating your zodiac personality, star sign to your true self to help you find your own brightly shining star within. ## ♎ 1. LIBRA – YOUR SELF ♎

Libra, you are born upon a pair of scales. It is a harmonious day, when you arrived to complete the centre of a perfect family. For the rest of your life you are perpetually seeking to balance the scales of life and justice, sometimes indecisive as torn between two equal perspectives. Life needs to be just, peaceful, relaxing and calm for you to be truly happy.

You have a winning, charming, diplomatic manner about you. Born endearing to others from birth. You have a way of subtly debating or charmingly smiling to win others, including your partner, parents and friends over to your way of thinking. You just want peace and harmony for all.

From an early age, a Libran will aim to live life in partnership. Perhaps, you dream of having an ideal partner or soulmate, the perfect companion in life. Always you are the romantic, looking and dreaming of love. May even marry early in life, though must take care to look deeply below the rose tinted spectacles of life.

Otherwise early romance may change with age, then becoming divorce and once bitten or broken hearted find it harder to trust. So true to type a Libran once in a relationship wants harmony and partnership forever, will indulge the partner yet keep testing to check love runs deep too.

A Libran, you are symbolic with romance, one of the most seductive romantic lovers of the star signs. You appreciate romantic settings, sunsets, candlelight meals, walking to mountaintops for peak experiences. You feel and speak romance, like a Latin lover.

For a Libran decision-making can be hard. Often, you will balance all and opposing viewpoints for a just outcome. Harmony, peace and relaxation for all and self are hard to achieve.

Librans can make life look easy. Yet under a relaxed, laid back exterior a Libran is often working very hard to juggle life. Charm, diplomacy and popularity just smooth the way and are a natural way of operating. Yet a Libran often works long and hard hours to maintain lifestyle or family schedules.

♏ 10. SCORPIO - LOVE ♏

Love is for you a life mission quest. Independent you are yet many of you feel lost until you have found your perfect partner, best friend and soulmate. Honest and true, you love deeply and sincerely once you find your true one love. However in the meantime you will discretely pursue loves pleasures to the full, experimenting creatively, entering into moments of divine wild passion, and making movies both on and off the bedroom screen.

As a lover you are satisfied, sated and happy often. Yet your mind may have bizarre quests of what if? Some of you may crave for or even take part in diverse creative loving and sexual practices.

You are truly a wondrous loving being, so some of this sensual craving may be satisfied by playing fantasies in your mind, reading erotic literature or viewing erotica.

You are truly a very private lover, so some may mistake you for a quiet non-passionate soul yet underneath beats a passionate pulse even into old age. You are very passionate when alone with your loved one or behind closed doors or when making love in deserted woodlands. Yet may rarely demonstrate excess emotion or tactileness in public. A look and brief touch of fingertips says it all in your eyes.

Honest and true, you love deeply and sincerely when you find your love. Before you find the one, you may find that you satisfy your lovers, yet though they rarely satisfy you.

They fail to satisfy a deep hidden kernel deep within your soul. As sometimes you know what you seek yet not where to find it. When you find it a deep recognition within your soul tells you this is the one, Then you pursue with quiet determination and like an eagle bird of prey who has been circling searching the valley, cruising overhead. You now set your sites like a target sight on a rifle and rapidly zoom in on your intended.

For when you want something, someone or to do something, nothing will stand in your way. An intuitive side of you knows that this kind of soul love only comes past once in a lifetime and you have been waiting since the moment you were born. So young or old it seems a long wait as you were born to love.

♐ SAGITTARIUS – SEXY SOULMATING ♐

Your life is run in the fast lane. Sharing an appreciation of art, theatre, and musical concerts together heightens your senses. You love to be active and move together; perhaps you take up dance classes or a leisure activity to keep fit together. Naturally this wonderful love partner of yours, you cannot wait to show off to everyone, especially the friends and your social circle. That is a key psychological test of yours; they must also be approved of or seen as a desirable match for you. Often you will have selected them from your social circle, having observed them at first hand, fallen passionately in love, you know it is destined to be. You need another to light your fires of passion, as have a healthy appetite for loves pleasures. You love to give pleasure and will find many ways to help your soulmate experience ecstatic bliss by your side. No way must your beloved take you away from your social circle or cut off their contact. You live and breathe to be surrounded by others. Solitude for more than a weekend is more than enough. In the early days of love, you will talk ceaselessly about their virtues.

After others have met your soulmate, you will enjoy talking about your love life, how they are the perfect matches for you. You will fall head over heels in love. You can be reckless in love, throwing caution to the wind. This is great providing you have thought it out. Often you have not, just trusted to love, the fates or whatever. This can mean that the fairytale ending is not so wonderful as you both imagined, especially yourself. This can then lead to just as rapid an exit, break-up or divorce. You are resilient and soon bounce back, engaged again soon or re-married even. You live and let live. Your life is an adventure; you chalk all your achievements or trials up to experience. That's life you lived it and loved it and always will. At least your tale of love under the stars is never boring; you see more shooting stars in a short while than others see in a lifetime. You always live it to the limit, party until you drop and make love until both are totally exhausted and cannot move. Even if not so wild, you bring magical moments to light up your beloved's life with laughter. Your beloved cannot live without you.

♑ 27. CAPRICORN - MONEY ♑

Since a young child, many Capricorns will have been good at accumulating money, saving money and earning money. Depending on your application, this may be just small sums or with dedication large sums. You believe in the concept little acorns grow into mighty oak trees. You often have a number of savings accounts, with every one having a little tucked away for a rainy day. Whether a small earner or larger earner, you always do save.

The threshold for feeling poverty is a lot lower than most zodiac signs, some are poor when down to their last ten's of thousands, let alone pounds. You feel any reduction in funds acutely and take steps to either rein in or reverse the trend. Capricorns are least likely to get into debt or fritter their money away. They hate giving away money, prefer not to lend and would rather someone did something to earn a gift of money. Though you will when truly moved be generous to charitable causes, your preference is to give your time in aiding the needy rather than donating cash.

With age and wisdom more money accumulating skills are acquired. You will be saving for retirement and ideally an early retirement escape, if possible so can focus on what you want to do. Your earlier years will be dedicated to finding your way in the world and your family. If you have no immediate family, you will be dedicated to helping the extended family. You are cautious, why spend lots of money in an expensive restaurant when you can cook a beautiful candlelit dinner at home for far less. You are frugal, sometimes people say miserly, yet you know you have to save more than you spend to move slowly upwards. You make large purchases when essential, you will value quality transport, so may be tempted to invest in a top of the range, high mileage economy car that will last many years. You like your creature comforts too. You may be able to justify a large wardrobe and many outfits as essential. Reasons being you have to have a different one each day of the week, different business and social roles, and no time for washing or dry cleaning all the time. Your decisions are made on practicalities. Only adverse planetary aspects result in Capricorns that are reckless gamblers or wasters in life. Everything is usually done in moderation, most of the time.

GUIDANCE - ROMANTIC SOUL MATES

“Love, hate, ignore or treat them with indifference,
Live together in blissful union or apart in hatred,
In separation be aware of a hidden shared life purpose,
Your soulmate’s presence will be felt in your waking,
Your restlessness subconscious, nights of angst,
Any which way your destiny falls your paths will cross,
Even alone, your dreams are of soulmate contracts.”

FIONA D’ARCY STEWART

Others have found the following guidance given on soulmates inspiring, which is partly my own thoughts and partly extrapolated from late night discussions on the higher meaning of soulmate philosophy, love and life over many years of intriguing debates.

ROMANCE YOUR LOVE STARS - SOULMATES

Defining Soulmates

There are many definitions of soulmates, varying from the ultimate love experience seeking of the holy grail to helper soulmates that work alongside us during this lifetime on planet earth.

Types of Soulmates

These can be divided into three levels in the hierarchy i) twin flames soulmates ii) higher twin soulmates iii) lower sister-brother soulmates and finally helper soulmate associate friends/family.

All of which are magical, a little like a pyramid effect, twin flames are elusive at the top, then there is a number of higher twin potential soulmates, then lots of sister-brother soulmates, then masses of ordinary souls. Most are at the ‘norm’ of soul evolution.

It is commonly recognised that there are degrees of soulmate liaisons, from the highest plane on nirvana which is often transient, brief fleeting, cosmic, making the universe move, and very difficult to love for any duration such soulmates, let alone live with, compared to a more enduring easier loving lower soulmate.

Occasionally, it is possible to endure a relationship with the highest of high soulmates who are preoccupied with their soul mission. More often successful longer duration of soulmates occurs lower down the hierarchy. Then of course there is just non-soulmates, normal romantic unions or merely functional couplings to satisfy a basic urge, that come or go in a lifetime. Soulmates often face trials with great challenges to equal its bliss in joyful union, calm at times and others irritating or inflammatory, stormy.

Soulmates can be viewed like a hierarchy and it is possible to meet more than one type of soulmate in your lifetime, if you should be so lucky. Though sometimes a lack of passion from sexual soulmate encounters or soulmate experience is beneficial as ignorance is bliss, conducive to a peaceful life even. As passionate sexual soul-mating or a close encounter of such nature once felt, even if briefly creates a restless questing rarely satisfied again, then other sexual romantic relationships afterwards pale into insignificance as the soul hungers after that magical bliss of feeling at one and at home both within one’s own soul and with another.
