INTRODUCTION: HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

“Use this star guide to help you recognise, meet and keep your true soulmate partner and soul friends (astrolovemates) to live your dream destiny together.”

Written with cosmic energy, ‘Soulmates Love Stars’ is a trilogy of 12 zodiac novelettes, analogies that give you practical guidance and further insight into yourself and your loved ones. Helping you to ‘find your true self’ personality and soulmates.

Each zodiac sign is related to recognising your self characteristics, love, money, work, health, lucky associations and sexy soul-mating. All aim to help you make the most of your personality, love life and potential soulmates. You can also use this star guide to understand other zodiac signs around you, to attract more harmony and romantic love into your life by understanding others needs and motivations. To improve your life, you can reflect, meditate or look at the lifestyle, attitudes, behaviours of that sign and see whether these can make a difference to enhance your life with love, health and wealth in abundance when looking for direction or interacting with others.

Soulmates Love Stars or ‘Astrolovemates’ a new word concept first created by Fiona Stewart at the start of the millenium, means ‘soulmates’ ‘love’ under the ‘stars (astro)’, with advice on helper ‘soulmates’ you meet on your journey to fulfil your life path destiny. Astrolovemates puts you back in touch with your own intuition via cosmic influences of the zodiac constellations, stars above. Your zodiac (sun) sign is the strongest influence on your personal development, however a secondary influence is the zodiac sign associated with your moon placement at birth, for further insight into emotions, love and partnership lifestyle traits. Insights for your soul’s fulfilment or healing any imbalance of mind, body and soul towards unison.

This star guide reveals an intuition known to the ancients from millenniums past, that is being rediscovered today. A potential gateway to the future. Astrolovemates offers you a thought-provoking personal love life guide, relating your zodiac personality, star sign to your true self to help you find your own brightly shining star within. ## ☾ 1. GEMINI – YOUR SELF ☽

Gemini means a versatile, adaptive, communicator with a quick wit and mind. Wait a moment, what do you mean by a communicator? That is a complex question to ponder with many perplexities and directions of thought emerging in a Gemini mind. Though your mind has even now flitted on to your next thought.

Nothing is ever that simple for you, every concept presents a myriad of ideas. Many choices present daily, directions of thought and avenues of analysis for you to pursue. However, you are not wanting to delve too deeply, too much of the time. As much as psychoanalysis of self is fascinating, you know it can tie you up in knots or you get lost in unfathomable depths.

You are so quick-witted and highly able to cope with the continual onslaught of perceptions, thoughts and everything around. Gemini, fast processing is your forte. You excel at disseminating information even passing on gossip.

Now while reading this novelette you are doing a few things all at once. Perhaps you are working, or communicating, relaxing in the bath or between books or magazines. You thought you would just dip into this one, to see if you could learn something about yourself. You thought it might amuse, stimulate you, providing a few gems of deep provoking thought. Perhaps a friend recommended it. Here you are.

Restlessly seeking, you are questing for knowledge, thirsting for it. Have I told you anything yet you wonder? Yet already the lines above are unveiling a unique star sign – Gemini. You are currently wondering whether to continue or to start something else and come back later or not. Do continue as ideally you are making it a new resolution as you mature to finish tasks, before starting a whole load of new ones or to reduce it to maybe only two things at once maybe. Instead of your usual flitting around so much in life. It is ok to have many tasks on the go at once. It is just that you need to finish many tasks too, for completion, satisfaction or to meet other peoples needs. Completion with real depth, even now and again means that people take you more seriously and believe in you.

♋ 10. CANCER - LOVE ♋

Love is the essence of a Cancerian, whether universal soul love, romantic love, friendship love or love for a pet. Empathy and emotions flow throughout. A Cancerian feels within so strongly or feels another's joy or angst that it's almost like his or her own sometimes. It takes maturity to detach, to love when it matters and to free life up for living.

True love, happy endings, romance are what dreams are made from. So many dreams and fantasies colour a Cancerian imagination. Lucky are the lovers or friends of a Cancerian as he or she will take you with them. Transporting you on a rainbow to the moon, where love rules eternal and where moonlight plays on a sunlit beach. A contradiction in terms, not really. Anything is possible in your imagination.

Where a Cancerian walks happily the sun is always shining. Everyone is happy, playing and loving in harmony together. Barbara Cartland, a Cancerian novelist had such a powerful imagination. She dictated romantic novels at a fast pace direct from her imagination. Producing Mill's and Boon Series of eternal love and romance. Of course love is tempestuous, passionate and stormy too in a Cancerian world. Moments of great passion alternating with dying, separation and heartbreak.

Only a Cancerian could take you to the stars and moon one minute, be ecstatically happy. Then cry tears of sorrow drowning you in the deepest ocean of emotion the next. For the Cancerian well of emotion runs deep to the centre of the earth. With time and maturity, a depth of calm as well as emotionality becomes more delightful to a partner. In the youthful years, a suitor could return home not knowing whether to expect a feast of joy and love. Or to become Noah and 'The Arc' - as floods of tears indicate the end of the earth is nigh.

Now the Cancerian man may or may not cry beautifully too. Perhaps not floods of tears, yet his heart internally will be brimming over as he too becomes brusque, crusty and withdraws into his protective shell too. For Cancerians, love is a grand paramour, a scene from a medieval story. A Romeo and Juliet of the modern day.

♌ LEO – SEXY SOULMATING ♌

Leo, your life quest requires the perfect partner and I mean the true love of your life. One to hold, love and cherish forever more. The perfect partner offers a complete package of pleasing looks, the right physique, level of fitness, sense of humour and intelligence that is complementary to the discerning Leo. The partner is truly special, magical, stands out from the crowd. So ultra desirable a love and one to be looked up to and admired. In short the love of your life.

Often a strong personality is sought. One who can stand up to and challenge the Leo. A lover that can match the Leo must have lots of energy, as so many dream projects to do together. Charming, diplomatic, a winner, capable of managing groups and projects too. An amiable personality is sought, a charming personality and negotiator who commands respect and love from others. Warmth and passion are paramount. Need to be demonstrative, physical ideally able to express a range of emotions to you, Leo. Your beloved is willing to give you lots of emotional and intellectual support. A sense of humour is essential, combined with a sense of fun and playfulness. Many attributes are required to light up a rather mundane life with cheer, love and laughter.

An ideal partner for you, Leo should have a variety of interests and passions. Many interests and people to share, also a few to follow alone.

Though a Leo likes to move together as one, there is magic in coming together after being apart. Nights out with just the boys or girls are to be encouraged. Ideally not too risqué escapades for the partner, as a Leo would hate to lose a hard won sought after partner to a predator. Much prefer to know the partner is out with friends already met by both.

A Leo in love offers hi fidelity, true commitment and can only mate with one true mate for life, once met. As the partner becomes best friend and lover, showing the old cliché is true. An ideal partner is open and trusting. Enjoys romance, seduction and sex in abundance. As this Leo has a big heart and large appetite for all pleasures.

♍ 27. VIRGO - MONEY ♍

Thought that would put a glint in your eyes. It's not that you are so materialistic. Your philosophy on money is its own. Its just you like to know your special hidden reserves are there. There is your savings account, plus some dusty certificates tucked in the loft. Perhaps there is a rare antique or two or cash under the floorboards.

You get the picture, often living simply. Angst sets in when not feeling secure. Your home is often a great investment, albeit a simple lifestyle, as watch the pennies and the pounds look after themselves.

If not an accountant yourself, you know how to find the best for a canny fee in professional terms, to keep an eye on everything. Over the years, money slowly accumulates it is part of your security or way of being. You either live well or simply in a warm, homely, earthly kind of way. Even if look like are living in poverty have the best all tucked away, with provisions for such a rainy day and a cupboard piled high with stores.

You know how much everything costs, especially if wasted. Though at other times you can spend a small fortune if a part of the garden or house needs attention, as that's what it takes to do it properly. Money and economics is a law unto your own justifications. You will bemoan a company asset, no matter how small, used by accident, as lost business profit or household income. Yet will spend several hundreds or thousands on your home, garden or business in an instant, seeing it essential, an improvement or future investment.

Clothes you like to have a great name or quality item as you are quality itself. Ideally, displaying names others will recognise as quality. You respect quality in others too. Presentation or classiness makes a difference you see. You may be known to take the packaging off to keep them guessing too. You feel even better if purchase discreetly in the sales. Or you can buy it with some hard earned accumulated bonus points or vouchers. Your hair will be cut well and neatly with a hint of style or very chic at regular intervals. Partly because it irritates you when it is out of sorts.

GUIDANCE - ROMANTIC SOUL MATES

“Love, hate, ignore or treat them with indifference,
Live together in blissful union or apart in hatred,
In separation be aware of a hidden shared life purpose,
Your soulmate’s presence will be felt in your waking,
Your restlessness subconscious, nights of angst,
Any which way your destiny falls your paths will cross,
Even alone, your dreams are of soulmate contracts.”

FIONA D’ARCY STEWART

Others have found the following guidance given on soulmates inspiring, which is partly my own thoughts and partly extrapolated from late night discussions on the higher meaning of soulmate philosophy, love and life over many years of intriguing debates.

ROMANCE YOUR LOVE STARS - SOULMATES

Defining Soulmates

There are many definitions of soulmates, varying from the ultimate love experience seeking of the holy grail to helper soulmates that work alongside us during this lifetime on planet earth.

Types of Soulmates

These can be divided into three levels in the hierarchy i) twin flames soulmates ii) higher twin soulmates iii) lower sister-brother soulmates and finally helper soulmate associate friends/family.

All of which are magical, a little like a pyramid effect, twin flames are elusive at the top, then there is a number of higher twin potential soulmates, then lots of sister-brother soulmates, then masses of ordinary souls. Most are at the ‘norm’ of soul evolution.

It is commonly recognised that there are degrees of soulmate liaisons, from the highest plane on nirvana which is often transient, brief fleeting, cosmic, making the universe move, and very difficult to love for any duration such soulmates, let alone live with, compared to a more enduring easier loving lower soulmate.

Occasionally, it is possible to endure a relationship with the highest of high soulmates who are preoccupied with their soul mission. More often successful longer duration of soulmates occurs lower down the hierarchy. Then of course there is just non-soulmates, normal romantic unions or merely functional couplings to satisfy a basic urge, that come or go in a lifetime. Soulmates often face trials with great challenges to equal its bliss in joyful union, calm at times and others irritating or inflammatory, stormy.

Soulmates can be viewed like a hierarchy and it is possible to meet more than one type of soulmate in your lifetime, if you should be so lucky. Though sometimes a lack of passion from sexual soulmate encounters or soulmate experience is beneficial as ignorance is bliss, conducive to a peaceful life even. As passionate sexual soul-mating or a close encounter of such nature once felt, even if briefly creates a restless questing rarely satisfied again, then other sexual romantic relationships afterwards pale into insignificance as the soul hungers after that magical bliss of feeling at one and at home both within one’s own soul and with another.
